

SEARCH FOR A NEW DEPUTY PRINCIPAL - HEAD OF SECONDARY SCHOOL

Start: August 2021 (or January 2022)

The HELP International School (HIS) invites you to join the executive leadership team of this progressive and forward-thinking community of learners. The school is at the forefront of holistic education for 4 to 18-year olds in Malaysia. Now in its seventh year of operation, HIS has enjoyed phenomenal growth with 1400 students on its roll. The school is now entering a period of consolidation, as it seeks to further deepen and broaden the culture of continual improvement that has been in evidence since the school's founding.

The successful candidate will be a high achieving middle or senior leader, with a strong track record of success and a desire to be part of our continued pursuit of excellence. You will have well-developed interpersonal skills that will enable you to influence positive change, guide and implement best practice and enhance learning outcomes.

Enthusiasm, energy, empathy, and resilience are essential, together with a strong commitment to staff development and to the wider holistic intent of our school vision.

Ideally, the successful appointee will take up the position August 2021, but a later start in January 2022 may also be considered. The remuneration package is competitive and includes housing, medical insurance, annual flights, education for dependent children and other benefits.
